

SRI GURU RAM DAS UNIVERSITY OF HEALTH SCIENCES, SRI AMRITSAR

(Establish under Punjab Act No. 43 of 2016)

PROSPECTUS CUM INFORMATION BULLETIN FOR ADMISSION TO

MD/ MS COURSES

SESSION 2025 - 26

IMPORTANT NOTES

We shall abide by the following

1. Constitutional 93rd Amendment:- In India, the Constitutional 93rd amendment, 2006 added clause (5) in Article 15 which stated-nothing shall prevent the State from making any special provision by law, for the advancement of any socially and educationally backward classes of citizens or for the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes in so far as such special provisions relate to their admission to educational institutions including private educational institutions, whether aided or unaided by the State, other than the minority educational institutions.

2. A Full Bench of Punjab & Haryana High Court in Amardeep Singh Sahota v. State of Punjab, (1993) 4 Serv LR 673 had to consider the scope and binding force of the provisions contained in the prospectus. The Bench took the view that the prospectus issued for admission to a course, has the force of law and it was not open to alteration. In Raj Singh v. Maharshi Dayanand University, 1994 (4) RSJ 289 another Full Bench of this Court took the view that a candidate will have to be taken to be bound by the information supplied in the admission form and cannot be allowed to take a stand that suits him at a given time. The Full Bench approved the view expressed in earlier Full Bench that eligibility for admission to a Course has to be seen according to the prospectus issued before the Entrance Examination and that the admission has to be made on the basis of instructions given in the prospectus, having the force of law. Again Full Bench of this Court in Sachin Gaur v. Punjabi University, 1996 (1) RSJ 1: (AIR 1996 Punjab & Haryana 109) took the view that there has to be a cut-off date provided for admission and the same cannot be changed afterwards. These views expressed by earlier Full Benches have been followed in CWP No. 6756 of 1996 by the three of us constituting another Full Bench. Thus, it is settled law that the provisions contained in the information brochure for the Common Entrance Test 1997 have the force of law and have to be strictly complied with. No modification can be made by the Court in exercise of powers under Article 226 of the Constitution of India

4. UNIVERSITY RULES REGARDING RAGGING AND ITS PREVENTION

The word 'ragging' means the act of teasing, taunting, playing a practical joke upon someone or holding comic parades and other activities during certain period of a College terms to raise money for charity.

But over the years, the word ragging ceased to denote the healthy practice. It used to be and has acquired more negative connotations and notoriety. Now a day's 'ragging' includes:

DEFINITION OF RAGGING

Any act of violence, Physical/mental directed towards any student of the college within a campus or outside a campus is ragging.

What Constitutes ragging?

Ragging constitutes one or more of any of the following acts:

- i. Any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student.
- ii. Including in rowdy or in disciplined activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship, physical or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student.
- iii. Asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student.
- iv. Any act by a senior student that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any other student or a fresher.
- v. Exploiting the services of a fresher or any other student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of students.
- vi. Any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a fresher or any other student by students.

- vii. Any act of physical abuse including all variants of it: sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures causing bodily harm or any other dangerto health or person;
- viii. Any act or abuse by spoken words, email, post, public insults which would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill from actively or passively participating in the fresher or any other student.

To prevent ragging, some State Governments enacted legislation defining ragging, suggestive preventive measures and punishment. The University Grants Commission strongly recommends that every education institute should take steps to curb the menace of ragging.

Every Institution should implement the following measures to prevent ragging.

- I. At the commencement of academic session, the head of the institution (Director/ Principal, etc) may address a meeting of various agencies like wardens, representatives of students, parents/guardians, faculty, Police and other law and order machinery with an appeal to help eradicate the menace of ragging in the Institution completely.
- II. At the commencement of academic session, the Institution should constitute a vigilance committee consisting of senior faculty, some hostel authorities like wardens and few responsible senior students to have an inbuilt mechanism for checking the incidence of ragging. The committee should monitor the events involving ragging, enquire into them and make recommendations in this regard to the Institution authorities. The committee can draw its modalities of functioning, frequency of visits/meetings etc.
- III. The powers of wardens and other authorities should be suitably enhanced. Some of them may be vested with a kind of powers so that they can take immediate action in certain situations.
- IV. A disciplinary committee may be set up at the Institution level to consider the recommendations of the vigilance committee and spell out the punishments. If considered necessary, this committee can further investigate the events and recommendations which were brought before it.
- V. The head of the Institution (Director/Principal etc.) should take immediate action on receipt of the recommendations of the disciplinary committee. He can also take action if the circumstance so demand.
- VI. Fresher students should be encouraged to report incidents of ragging. Those who do not do so even when being witnesses or victims should also be punished suitably.

- VII. When the persons committing or abetting the crime of ragging are not identified, collective punishment could be resorted to as a possible deterrent measure, as it would ensure community pressure on the potential raggers not to indulge in ragging.

5. PUNISHMENTS

The following could be the possible punishments for those who are found guilty of participation in or abetment of ragging. The quantum of punishment shall naturally depend upon the nature and gravity of the offence as established by the disciplinary committee or the Court of law.

- I. Suspension from attending classes.
- II. Withholding/withdrawing scholarship/fellowship and other benefits.
- III. Debarring from appearing in any test/examination or other evaluation process.
- IV. Withholding results.
- V. Debarring from representing the Institution many National and International meet, Tournament, youth festival etc.
- VI. Suspension/expulsion from the hostel.
- VII. Expulsion from the Institution and consequent debarring from admission to any other institution.
- VIII. A fine up to Rs. 50,000/-
